CALL FOR PAPERS

New Perspectives in International Trade and Factor Movements: Robots and the Environment

Ancona, November 13-14, 2020

Due to the current COVID-19 emergency, the next meeting of the ITSG - Italian Trade Study Group - organised by the Department of Economics and Social Sciences of the Università Politecnica delle Marche, and Fondazione Manlio Masi, originally scheduled in June, will take place in November, 13-14, 2020.

Submissions are invited on all topics in international trade. Papers exploring the implications of robots' adoption and environmental issues for international trade and factor movements are particularly welcome.

Topics of special interest include:

- Robotization of production, trade and reshoring
- Environmental implications of FDI
- Migration, environment and technology
- Trade and the current global crisis

Complete papers (or advanced drafts) should be submitted to the Segreteria Fondazione Masi - segreteria.fondazionemasi@ice.it - by September 30, 2020. The acceptance of the papers will be notified no later than October 16, 2020.

The keynote lecture of the Workshop will be delivered by Gabriel Felbermayr, Kiel Institute for the World Economy and Kiel University.

The Scientific Committee of this meeting includes: Alessia Lo Turco (Università Politecnica delle Marche), Giulia Bettin (Università Politecnica delle Marche), Roberto Esposti (Università Politecnica delle Marche), Giulia Felice (Politecnico di Milano), Giorgia Giovannetti (Università di Firenze), Daniela Maggioni (Università Ca' Foscari di Venezia), Gianluca Santoni (CEPII), Lucia Tajoli (Politecnico di Milano).

Logistic information about the meeting will be posted in due time on the following website: www.fondazionemasi.it.
