June 23-24, 2022

CALL FOR PAPERS

The next meeting of the ITSG - Italian Trade Study Group will be organized by the DISES (Department of Economics and Statistics) of the University of Salerno and by the Manlio Masi Foundation. Submissions are invited on all topics in international trade. Papers exploring the implications of digitalisation, health, and environmental issues on trade, FDI and migration are particularly welcome.

Topics of special interest include:

- Trade, factor (and firm) mobility after COVID
- Disruption in trade(sanctions) and international production networks in time of crisis
- Trade and labour market outcomes
- Artificial intelligence, new technologies and international trade
- Offshoring and automation
- Environmental innovation and knowledge spillovers through trade
- Migration and democracy
- Trade, environment, and the current global crisis

We invite submissions of empirical and theoretical contributions that analyse the above and related topics with an emphasis on a policy perspective.

The keynote lecture of the Workshop will be delivered by Frederic Docquier, Luxembourg Institute of Socio-Economic Research (LISER).
